

JOURNAL
THE EAST END

La mer est l'amer destin de tous les voyages

MYTILENE – 31 JAN 2016

In the interim time between the familiar and flight, the decks of ships are transitional places.

Blue Star 1 sailed from Piraeus at 20.00 for Psara, Oinousses, Chios and ultimately Lesbos in the east Aegean.

The first image of February: the port of Psara. The first cigarette: on the deck. It is 2:40am and there are few passengers tonight. A low wall and a dark and empty settlement is all that's visible of the small harbour.

THERMA – 1 FEB 2016

The first thing you see when arriving at the town of Mytilene from the sea is the large round mass of the municipal swimming pool and the statue of Liberty with its huge pedestral in the shade of the castle [...]

Article published in NOMASmagazine, issue 5th, summer- autumn 2016